

Peter Mühlbauer

A rare August Pietra Paesina Cabinet

Augsburg, ca. 1660

120 x 89 x 52 cm

The most important German cabinets were made in Augsburg in the 17th century through the collaboration of various craftsmen and artists and were exported to royal courts and wealthy customers all over the world.

Two further cabinets, probably also dating from around 1660, are exhibited in the Kunsthistorisches Museum in Vienna and the Germanisches Nationalmuseum in Nuremberg.

Lit.: Dieter Alfter „Die Geschichte des Augsburger Kabinettschranks“ auf S. 89 und Abb. 98.

Prov.: Gallery Hofstätter Vienna, Private collection Vienna

